

Patriot Services Corporation selected by Genesee County Health Department to provide Emergency Response Plans

Contact: Stephen M. Potter

Phone: (248) 436-8420

Date: 5/3/2007

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Patriot Services Corporation

Southfield, MI - Patriot Services Corporation, a 100% veteran owned small business, and a national provider of consulting and training in Emergency Preparedness and Homeland Security has been selected by the Genesee County Health Department to provide emergency preparedness planning services.

"We are very excited about the opportunity to provide emergency preparedness planning services to Genesee County Health Department. Emergency Preparedness planning is paramount in order to provide a proper response to the residents of the county and we look forward to working with the Health Department as well as the other planning partners" Scott Hiipakka, Vice President stated.

Patriot Services Corporation is a 100% veteran owned small business located in Oakland County, Michigan. The Company specializes in providing Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness solutions to private industry, hospitals, schools, and local, state and federal agencies clients throughout the United States of America. Patriot Services Corporation has offices in Southfield and Lansing Michigan as well as in Indianapolis, Indiana. For more information please visit www.patriot-services.com or call 248.436.8420.