

Patriot Services Corporation Hires Robert House

Contact: Stephen M. Potter

Phone: (248) 232-3588

Date: 7/27/2005

For Immediate Release

Clawson, MI, July 27, 2005 – Mr. Robert P. House, formerly a State of Michigan, Department of Military and Veteran's Affairs Exercise Planner for Exercise Vigilant State, a large scale Airline Security Exercise at Detroit Metropolitan Airport has joined Patriot Services Corporation as a consultant. He will specialize in providing Comprehensive Disaster and Emergency Preparedness (CDEP) Solutions to Patriot Service Corporation's private and public sector clients.

If your organization desires to implement security and emergency preparedness standards and associated best practices advocated by the Department of Homeland Security contact Steve Potter at 248.229.7823, spotter@patriot-services.com.

Patriot Services Corporation is a 100% veteran owned small business located in Oakland County, Michigan. The Company specializes in providing Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness solutions to private industry, schools, and local, state and federal government clients throughout the United States of America.

Patriot Services Corporation has offices in Clawson, Clarkston, and Ypsilanti, MI. For more information please visit www.patriot-services.com or call 248.229.7823.