

Patriot Services Corporation to speak at Michigan's Premier Public Health Conference

Contact: Stephen M. Potter

Phone: (248) 232-3588

Date: 9/16/2005

For Immediate Release

Clawson, MI - Patriot Services Corporation, a 100% veteran owned small business, and a national provider of consulting and training in Anti-Terrorism, Counter Terrorism, Emergency Preparedness and Homeland Security announces that Scott Hiipakka, the Company's Vice President of Public Health Solutions has been selected to present a session on Understanding the Department of Homeland Security's Exercise and Planning and Evaluation Program at Michigan's Premier Public Health Conference at the Amway Grand Plaza on October 11, 2005.

"Scott Hiipakka has an in depth knowledge of the the National Incident Management System and the challenges facing public health professionals as they plan for, prepare for, and conduct simulated exercises for public health emergencies. He is also a seasoned exercise planner who has recently overseen the development, planning, and operation for several large scale disaster and terrorism exercises both nationally and internationally." President Stephen M. Potter said.

Patriot Services Corporation is a 100% veteran owned small business located in Oakland County, Michigan. The Company specializes in providing Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness solutions to private industry, schools, and local, state and federal government clients throughout the United States of America. Patriot Services Corporation has offices in Clawson and Clarkston, and Milford Michigan. For more information please visit www.patriot-services.com or call 248.232.3588.